

Outreach: Bringing Friends

An easy way to earn extra Journey General Bucks is to bring friends. Your friend will get a buck for coming too. If you bring them back a second time, they can get bucks for bringing their Bible and wearing their room's color t-shirt. Be sure to have your friend fill-out and turn in one of the purple Visitor Forms so we have proof and you get credit for bringing them. (Each friend only counts once.)

Service: Serving Others

Serving one another is something that Jesus talks a LOT about in the Bible. Serving students grow into compassionate adults! There will be a few opportunities to serve during the school year. These opportunities will be announced and notes sent home for parents to be aware. (Each opportunity will be age appropriate for the students invited.)

Love

13 If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10 but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. 11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. 12 For now we see, but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I see in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
